

WINTER YURT RESPONSIBILITIES

In reserving a YURT in North Fork Park, you will be required to sign a licensing agreement with Weber County. This agreement will be sent to you via email after your reservation is complete. You must sign the agreement and either bring it with you when you check in or email to manager@ogden nordic.com.

The following is a list of the responsibilities agreed to when reserving the Yurt.

- A. Yurts MUST be accessed by snowshoes, skis or fat bike. Regardless of the mode of access, all 'rules' for trail use must be followed. You are responsible for knowing and adhering to ALL Ogden Nordic 'rules'. View the website activity menu for details.
- B. Trail passes for use of the trails for skiing/snowshoeing or fat biking must be purchased for all yurt visitors who are not season pass holders.
- C. ALL supplies must be taken in by users (no snowmobile assistance will be provided to schlep stuff). See a printable list of suggested supplies at: OgdenNordic.com/yurt-more-info.
- D. Maximum occupancy is 6. HOWEVER, each yurt has one double and two single bed platforms accommodating 4. If you have 5 or 6 occupants, please plan accordingly.
- E. No pets allowed unless certified service dogs
- F. No smoking in the yurts
- G. No open flame cooking devices will be used in the yurt – all cooking must be done on the wood stove
